Published by Authority of Parliament,

John Barnes.

St. James's, February 2, 1779.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, about Six o'Clock in the Morning of the 2d of last Month, a dreadful Fire broke out in the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, which extended itself with such Rapidity and raged with such Violence, that, before the same could be extinguished, the Chapel and Cupola, with several of the Wards in Queen Mary's Building, were destroyed, and other considerable Damage done; and whereas it has been further represented to His Majesty, that, notwithstanding the most diligent Enquiries, it hath not yet appeared whether the said Fire was the Effect of Accident, or wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some Evil-disposed Person or Persons at present unknown: His Majesty, therefore, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice any Person or Persons who may have been concerned in wilfully and maliciously setting Fire to the said Hospital, as above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Hospital) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Offence, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and duly convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement for bringing to Punishment the Person or Persons who may have been concerned in the above mentioned atrocious Offence, the Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital do hereby promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid without any Deduction whatsoever, by the Treasurer of the said Hospital, to any Person or Persons who shall discover the Offender or Offenders, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

John Ibbetson.

Navy Office, February 3, 1779.

Whereas a Person was observed on Saturday the 23d of last Month, about Twelve o'Clock at Night, to ascend the Wall of His Majesty's Dock-yard at Plymouth, and to throw himself over the said Wall; and, upon examining the Spot on the Outside of the Wall, there was found a Rattling-line tied in Knots about 16 or 18 Inches asunder, with a large Newfoundland Fish-hook at the End of it, by which he got up, and a Twine Thread, with a Stone tied to it, which reached from the Top of the Wall to the Bottom; and near the Spot was also found a Bottle filled with Gunpowder, stopped with brown Paper, prepared to burn as a Quick Match: The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that whoever will apprehend the said Person, and bring him before any Magistrate, or give such Notice as may be the Means of his being apprehended, so that he be produced to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy at Plymouth Dock-yard, or the Commissioners of the Navy in London, shall receive Three Hundred Pounds Reward on his Conviction, to be paid by the said Commissioners of the Navy.

N. B. He appeared to be a short elderly Man, wore his own Hair, had on a dark Surcoat Coat, looked like a Foreigner, with a shrivelled Face, and wore a fan-tail Hat.

General Post-Office, January 19, 1779.

ON Saturday last the 16th Instant, about Six o'Clock in the Evening, the Post-Boy was attacked and robbed, at a Place called Priest's Bridge, about Four Miles North of Morpeth, of the whole Scotch Mail, and the Bags from Berwick, Belford, and Alnwick, which should have arrived here this Morning, by Two Footpads, armed with Bludgeons, who stopped the Boy, cut the Mails from the Cart, and immediately conveyed the same into a Wood adjoining, of whom no further Description can be given from the Darkness of the Night.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of the Persons who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending Highwaymen: Or if any Person, whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby both or either of the Persons who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice; such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of both or either of the Parties, be intitled to the same Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.
